VOL. 41. EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1906. NO. 39.

A Prosperous Lumberman.

M. W. Whiting, of Sterling Run, visited in Emporium last Saturday, calling on old friends, the PRESS included. Mr. Whiting is conducting three extensive lumbering jobs—one in West Virginia—and is considered one of the most prosperous and reliable lumbermen in this state. We certainly enjoyed his visit to our sanctum and appreciated the elegant penmanship attached to a check coutinuinng three copies of the PRESS. Ye editor and Mr. Whiting have been friends since boyhood days and trust we may always remain as such.

Ex-Judge Huntley.

The genial Judge Huntley, of Driftwood, was a welcome visitor in Emporium on Monday meeting old acvuaintances, all of whom were pleased to meet him once more. Judge Huntley is actively engaged in lumbering in both Pennsylvania and West Virginia and spends littie time at home, his large business requiring his attention.

Coming Attractions.

Our theatre-going public we are pleased to be informed, are to be treated with the following named high-class opera, vaudeville, serio-comic, comic, and tragedical performances at different dates in the near future at the opera house, and for which all should be greatly elated, as it will raise the standard of performances equal to that of any city in the state. In order to have a continuance of such high-class plays, the lovers of such passtime entertainments should show their appreciation of the same by turning out in full force and thereby let the actors and actresses producing these plays on our boards see that we know a good thing when we see it. A partial list is herein given: The Country Jay; Buster Brown; New York Day by Day; A Thoroughbred Tramp; Ninety and Nine; Joyland; The Hearld Square Company Moving Pictures; Geo. P. Hall in "Hello Bill"; The Mummy and the Hummingbird; What Happened to Jones; Lyman H. Howe Moving Pictures; Sunny South Co.; York State Folks; The Bajah of Bong; Quincy Adams Sawyer; A Break for Liberty; Simple Simon Simple; Uncle Josh Spruceby.

The best treatment for indigestion and troubles of the stomach is to rest the stomach. It can be rested by starvation or by the use of a good digestant which will digest the food eaten; thus taking the work off the stomach. At the proper temperature, a single teaspoonful of Kodol wholly digest 3,000 grains of food. It relieves the present annoyance, puts the stomach in shape to satisfactorily perform its functions. Good for indigestion, sour stomach, flatulence, palpitation of the heart and dyspepsia. Kodol is made in strict comformity with the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Bargain in Books.

Scattering—Patton, Pro. 23; Thomas, Socialist, 3; Castle, Pro. 22.

I'm Coming Back, 'Buster Brown.'

The new version elaborated and emphasized with music most catchy, songs that are fascinating, marches that will delight.

Hear ye, all who have laughed,
At Buster's fun of yore,
He's coming back good friends,
Even funnier than before.

In this musical comedy will be seen Golf Girls, Scotch Girls, Tennis Girls, Auto Girls, College Girls, Irish Girls, Buster Girls and Other Girls. Bear well in mind there are sixty members of this company. 20 popular song features and music hits of now. An old friend in a new and elaborate dress, comedy, music, costumes, scenery all new.

Resolved, That we will always leave 'em laughing when we say good bye, Buster Brown at Emporium Opera House, Thursday, Nov. 22nd.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

PARKS.

Floyd Parks, aged 16, died at Ridgway hospital on Monday, of typhoid fever, after an illness of three weeks. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parks of Whittemore Hill; had been working at Johnsonburg when taken sick. His funeral takes place from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spangler, West Ceek, this (Thursday) afternoon. Interment in West Creek cemetery.

Free Demonstration.

Of interest to ladies. A free practical demonstration in baking will be given by the Fleischman Compressed Yeast Co., at Tompkins & Norris' general store, East Emporium Pa., Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15th, 16th and 17th. We will also give a demonstration at McCann & Sterner's Model Bakery, Monday, Nov. 19th, Tuesday, Nov. 20th, Wednesday, Nov. 21. Come and be convinced of the superior bread and rolls made with Fleischman's Compressed Yeast.

Capt. Barclay's Magnificent Endorsement.

The magnificent endorsement given Cameron county's candidate for Congress in this district is very gratifying. We herewith publish the official vote:

Judgeship Question.

There are so many questions asked us about the Judgeship matter, but we can oniy say that we, as well as hundreds of Judge Green's friends through. out this Judicial district, honestly believe that he was fairly elected and if such is the case he certainly is entitled to remain on the bench. But, on the other hand, if Major Hall was squarely the victor we will have to swallow our dose and submit like all good citizens.

While it is not likely Judge Green, on account of his position on the bench, will take any steps in his own behalf, he certainly owes it to the and his numerous friends in the district to allow them to investigate the many charges of fraud and illegal voting in Elk county, so that if they have to lay down they will feel it was not their fault. We trust these friends will get together and decide what can be done. All we ask is a square deal and honest count.

Now for County News.

Now that election is over and things have resumed their normal condition let us forget our little political differences and resume our friendly exchange of local news through our hustling towns throughout the county.

What can be more congenial than a full page of county news each week? It tends to draw us nearer together and creates a friendly feeling among the people at large.

Many of the people of Cameron county are scattered promiscuously throughout the different states, following their various vocations and are more than pleased to receive the latest news from their old home towns, or paces of sojourn, in times gone by.

"Though many friends have gone away,
Where loved ones are unknown,
How good it seems when they are sad,
To get the news from home.

It lightens all their daily cares,
And, whereever they may roam,
Their thoughts will often wander back,
To the dear friends left at home."

Married.

"For years I starved, then I bought a 50 cent bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and what that benefitted me all the gold in Georgia could not buy. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to work as machinist. In three months I was as well and hearty as I ever was. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906. Kodol sold here by R. C. Dodson.

Boy Shot.

Earl McDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDougall, of this place, met with a serious accident last Saturday morning, while hunting for birds near the stone quarey north of town. While passing through the brush his rifle (a 22 Winchester) evidently caught and pulled back the trigger, exploding the load, shooting the lad in the left foot, the ball entering the instep and passing towards the second toe. Earl at once tied a handkerchief around his foot and with the assistance of a young lad, managed to get to his grand-mother's home—Mrs. P. E. Lewis'—on East Sixth street. The injured boy was hurried to Dr. Heilman's office and placed under the X-ray when it was decided to amputate the second toe. Earl is now resting easy at his home and hopes to get out soon. It is unnecessary to add that Earl has a gun for sale, at a bargain.

A Success.

The Musical and Vaudeville entertainment given at the opera house last Monday evening was largely attended. The program, although quite lengthy, was pleasing, each and every member of the Junior Choir, ably assisted by their friends, doing their best. Mr. Keith and Miss Frances Siebert, all of Coudersport, greatly aided in making the entertainment a success. Mrs. Bennett Leutze, director of the choir, worked hard to make the entertainment a success. A neat sum was realized over expenses.

Sudden Death.

Our citizens were shocked Wednesday morning when the announcement was made that Mrs. A. E. Gross was at death's door, having been stricken with apoplexy about five o'clock. She did not regain consciousness and died at 10:30 same mornihg.

MRS. ANNA GROSS came to Emporium in the 60's and has always been a hard working lady. The leaves a husband and two sons, Geo. H. Gross and Ed. Strait, by a former marriage.

The funeral will be held from the late residence, West Creek, next Sunday at 1:30, the services being conducted at First Baptist church at 2:30 by her pastor, Rev. Calvin.

Her death is a great affliction to the family and our citizens deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones.

S. C. Larrabee Prcatical Painter

"Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for canned oil, which ought to cost but 60 cents a gallon. Ready mixed paint is half oil and half paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel and add it to the L. & M. Paint which is semi-mixed."

When you buy L. & M., Paint you get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L. & M., Zinc hardens the L. & M., White Lead and makes L. & M., paint wear like iron.

4 gallons L. & M., mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house.

Actual cost L. & M., $1.20 per gallon.

Sold in the north, east, south and west.

C. S. Andrews, Ex- Mayor, Danbury, Conn., writes: "Painted my house 19 years ago with L. & M. Looks well today."

Sold by H. S. Lloyd, Emporium, Pa.

Any design you desire on a pillow top, nicely done. Room 26, New Warner.

Books! Books! The best authors. Big bargains at Chas. Diehl's.

Judge B. W. Green.

Judge B. W. Green ran ahead of the Republican state ticket in this district, viz: Elk, 276; Clinton, 804; Cameron, 331. Total gain over Stuart's vote of 1411. At the same time Judge Green reduced the Democratic majorities in the district, over the Pennypacker—Pattison vote, by 2,371 votes, to say nothing of the disputed districts to be settled. Throughout the entire campaign His Honor refrained from partisan addresses and conducted a clean, honorable and dignified contest. Up on the face of returns his opponent has 163 majority in the district, from which there appears much dissatisfaction, many wondering how the majority in Elk could be declared so many hours in advance, with only one vote changed by the official count. Time will tell. Mr. Green stood upon his record as an upright Judge, depended upon those people who encouraged and battled for his election. To the loyal friends, of all parties, who had the manhood to obey their convictions, all honor is due—Democrats as well as Republicans. Many pretended friends in this county, too week stand upon their dignity, bowed in dictation and coercion and in the last few hours of the contest bitterly fought for Mr. Hall, which they had a perfect right to do, but they had no moral right to promise their support and then betray an old friend and neighbor.

Quarterly Meetings.

Quarteriy meeting service will be held at the Free Methodist Church, beginning Friday evening and lasting over the Sabbath.

Preaching service Friday and Saturday evening at 7:30. Lovefeast Sabbath morning at 9:30, preaching at 11:00, followed by communion service. Children's Foreign Missionary meeting at 3:00 p. m. Evening service at 7:00 p. m. Rev. A. J. Hill will be in charge and preach at each service. All are welcome.

J. NELSON BENNETT, Pastor.

Buster Brown.

Hereto the attraction that will make you sit up and take notice. The best singing and dancing chorus in musical comedy, this season bigger, brighter and more talented than ever before. There is music and song in every action of this comedy, there is hilarity in every turn of its crisp, witty lines. It is the exemplification of the funniest cartoons ever conceived and you have it served by the most talented comedians obtainable. This company of sixty members will be seen for the first time at Emporium Opera House, Thursday, Nov. 22nd.

NOTES OF INTEREST.

Greatest line of rubbers, for old and young, at Chas. Diehl's.

Next Thursday evening, Nov. 22nd, we will have Buster Brown at the Emporium Opera House with Master Rosen in the title part. This is one of the best of the many musical comedies that are now bidding for favor. It is fairly rampant with fun while this season all of the costumes are entirely new and most elaborate, every stick and stick of the scenery is new, while new music and songs will also be heard. The chorus we are promised is said to be large and most comely of face and form. This attraction should offer us an enjoyable evening at the playhouse.

Readers of the PRSSS, if you have not called at Chas. Diehl's store this fall, you are missing something by not doing so at once. It is the place for bargains.

In order to induce my customers to come early for Christmas work, I will make a reduction on all my work—from 20 to 25 per cent.—until Dec. 4th. Now is the time to get good work at a great reduction. Order your enlargements now for Christmas don't wait and have your work rushed.

W. G. BAIR.

Miss Margaret Barry with the Proud Prince Company gave a very interesting reading to the ladies in Shakespeare, Thursday afteroon in the Emmanuel Parish House. She also read part of MacBeth and a short child recitation of Rileys. Miss Barry is extremely clever.

In order to make room for Xmas framed pictures I will close out my entire stock on hand at one-half price. Christmas is not far off and they will come in handy for presents.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co, Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Give children a remedy with a pleasant taste. Don't force unpleasant medicine own their throats. Kennedy's Laxative containing Honey and Tar is most pleasant to take. Children like it, and as a relief for colds, coughs, etc., there is nothing better. No opiates. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

The one Only Record Making Musical Comedy.

Buster Brown, by R. F. Outcault, will be the attraction at the Emporium opera house, Thursday, Nov.22 This is the original and complete Buster Brown Company numbering sixty people. Get in line for fun and catch onto one of the new songs that the world will whistle and see The Buster Brown Bobby Burns Brigade, The play that is a household word throughout the entire country. Those who do not know Buster have heard of him. He has delighted the children. He has created more good wholesome laughter among the old folks than any boy of the century and he is still working. "Just for the fun of it."

Prof. Wiley is becoming too finicky in objecting to the use of borax and saltpetre as food, so long as the proper label is used thus: "Old-dough's Alum Bread;" "Tinplate's Borax Beans."

Dr. S. A. Frazier, of Berkeley, Cal., has invented a language containing neither swear words nor expressions to convey unpleasant emotions. This is going a great way toward taking language out of politics.

In Minnesota a teacher who spanked two girls had the choice of paying a heavy fine or resigning his position. If one of the maidens should eventually marry him he would regret having declined the chance to fly.

The students at the several colleges in Rome wear eccelsiastical garb, but each is different in cut and color. The Germans are the most conspicuous in long, single-breasted close-buttoned coats of brilliant scarlet.

South Carolina's efforts to promote immigration from Europe have already borne substantial fruit in the decision of the North German Lloyd company to operate an emigrant vessel directly from European ports to Charleston.

A Philadelphia policeman who nearly choked to death on a pearl in an oyster found out after he had recovered it and his wind that it was worth $50, which, of course, makes it one of those good chokes that we so frequently hear about and seldom see.

A Winona, Minn., hunter mistook a girl for a woodchuck the other day and shot her. Isn't it nearly time to insist that no man shall be permitted to hunt without first obtaining a license by showing that he knows game when he sees it?

Another universal language, Triniti, has been invented by one Dr. Frazier of Berkeley, who thinks to recommend it by advertising a total abstinence of swear words. There seems to be no economy in compelling people to know two languages.

A man who was born in America has won the professional golf championship. There is no likelihood, however, that we shall be called upon to send our boys to Scotland for the purpose of teaching the fine points of the game over there.

The largest and costliest building thus far undertaken in New York, the city of immense structures, is the magnificent $10,000,000 Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine, now being erected on Morningside Heights. This will be the greatest sacred edifice in America, and the fourth in importance in the world.

At the government printing office the new efficiency system arranged by Public Printer Stillings has gone into effect. This system is intended to provide for a precise estimate as to what a certain piece of work will cost. Heretofore the basis of estimates has been largely theoretical. The employes were alarmed when they learned that the dreaded efficiency system had gone into effect, fearing that it meant more work. Mr. Stillings allayed their fears. The new system simply preserves a record of what work each employe is able to do.

The figures of the domestic trade of the United States, like those relating to foreign commerce, show big gains for 1906 over the preceding year. The increase is particularly noteworthy in cattle, meat and grain shipments, in production and consumption of coal, in dealings in provisions, cotton and other staples and in the general business done by the great rail and water transportation routes. We are buying and selling more abroad than ever before, but our incomparable home market is developing at an unparalleled rate.

A Cleveland girl has written to the navy department saying she wants to enlist. The navy Jacks have lots of use for Jills, even aboard ship, only they don't spell them that way. The girl didn't say what she wanted to do aboard ship, but after she found the key of the foretop, and had stuck a knife in the mainmast to raise a breeze, she would probably discover some function of life at sea at present unused, simply because it never occurred to the department to ship girls.

GRAIN FIRMS

And Railroads are Indicted for Rebating.

SURPRISED THEM.

Federal Grand Jury at Minneapolis Astonished Railroad Officials by Its Action.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Eleven indictments were handed to Judge Lochren in the United States district court Thursday afternoon, covering the giving of rebates by certain railroads and the receiving of the same by grain firms and individuals. The list of corporations against which the indictments were returned as given out by Assistant District Attorneys Ewart and Dickie, who have had charge of the cases, are:

The Great Northern Railroad Co., four indictments and about 75 counts.

The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway, one indictment and 50 counts.

Wisconsin Central railway, one indictment, 17 counts.

Minneapolis & St. Louis railway, one indictment, five counts.

The indictments against the railroads charge the giving of rebates and under the head of receiving rebates the following true bills were returned:

W. P. Devereaux Co., McCaul-Dinsmore Co., Minneapolis; Ames Brooks Co., of Duluth; Duluth Milling Co.

Besides the corporations, indictments were returned against 11 individual officials of the railroads named, but District Attorney Houpt said he would not consent to the names being given out for publication, owing to the fact no service had yet been obtained on them.

The general offense alleged in the railroad indictments is the absorption of grain elevation charges.

After the bunch of indictments had been given out to the court the jurors were excused for the term and told to convene again in St. Paul. That a further and more searching investigation into the rebate question will be made is not denied by Assistant District Attorney Ewart and further revelations are expected to be made at the next sitting of the grand jury.

Perhaps the most surprised people of all were the railroads, for none of those interested expected indictments to be brought. Each company had made its best endeavors to disclaim any criminality in its relation with the grain companies.

WERE OVERCOME BY SMOKE.

A Woman and Four Children Perished in a Tenement House Fire.

New York.—In a fire in an East Side five-story tenement house on Madison street last night a woman and her four children were suffocated. The family, named Ginsberg, occupied apartments on an upper floor and their escape was cut off by the smoke and flames in the lower part of the building. More than 50 women were taken down the fire escapes by firemen.

When the firemen arrived on the scene almost every window of the building was crowded with women and children calling for assistance. The fire in the lower floors had filled the halls and stairways with smoke and cut off the means of escape. All of them were taken down fire escapes and ladders by the firemen, who then searched the halls and upper apartments. On the third floor they found the bodies of three children on the stairs, where they had been overcome by the smoke. In one of the flats on that floor they also found the bodies of the woman and the fourth child, who also had been suffocated.

Admitted that the Notes Were Forged.

Chicago, Ill.—Paul O. Stensland and Henry W. Hering, who were respectively president and cashier of the Milwaukee Avenue state bank, were in court Thursday to testify regarding some of the forged notes held by the institution and used by Hering and Stensland as ostensible collateral. The specific case in question was regarding a note of $10,000 signed with the name of Francis Peabody. Mr. Peabody declared that the signature is a forgery, and Hering on the witness stand admitted that the signature is not genuine. He also declared several other notes shown to him are forgeries.

Terrorists Dynamited a Train.

Warsaw. — Upon the arrival of a train over the Vienna-Warsaw railroad at Rogow station last night a band of Terrorists surrounded the station and threw a bomb at the mail van. The train was derailed. Several soldiers escorting the van were killed or wounded. The Terrorists then robbed the mail, and it is rumored that they got away with a very large sum of money, estimated as high as $500,000.

Strikers Win a Long Fight.

Scranton, Pa.—The strike at the Scranton nut and bolt works which began last June was ended Thursday, the company granting the demands for a 12½ per cent. increase in wages. The settlement of the strike here, it is believed, will result in similar concessions to the men in all eastern nut and bolt mills where men have been on strike.

Socialists Go Gunning.

Lodz, Russian Poland.—Seven nationalist workmen were shot down here Thursday by socialists.

CONSPIRACY CHARGES.

Indictments Returned Against Men who Furnished Boiler Tubes for Uncle Sam's Warships.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Indictments were returned by the federal grand jury in this city Friday against J. J. Dunn, Charles L. Close and Frank L. Emmett, officers and employes of the Shelby Steel Tube Co., charging them with conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the boiler tubes furnished for a number of battleships.

There are 30 specific counts against the men and it is alleged the conspiracy was in operation over a period from 1892 to January 1, 1905. The indictments further assert that the defective tubes were placed in boilers that were used on 12 vessels, among them being the Louisiana, upon which President Roosevelt is now making his trip to Panama. The other vessels named in the indictment as having the defective tubes alleged to have been furnished are the Maine, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Colorado, Vermont, Maryland, Tennessee, Washington, Minnesota, Nebraska and Charleston.

It is asserted that at the time the conspiracy is alleged to have been in effect, Dunn, who is now the superintendent of all the seamless tube mills of the Shelby Tube Co., was the superintendent of the Greenville mills where the boiler tubes were made. Close at that time was the assistant superintendent and Emmett was the head of the finishing and shipping department.

The indictments are the outcome of an investigation started a month or more ago upon information furnished by Emmett. Immediately after the return of the grand jury was made Judge Ewing issued bench warrants for the three men and they will be arrested to-day. They will be given a hearing Monday and the cases will be heard before the January term of the United States district court at Erie, Pa.

WAR IN TEXAS.

A Pitched Battle Between Rangers and Mexicans Results in the Death of Four of the Latter.

Laredo, Tex.—Four Texas rangers sent to Rio Grande City to quiet turbulent political conditions there and investigate the assassination of District Judge Welch, which occurred the night before election, were ambushed by a body of armed Mexicans between Fordyce and Rio Grande City late Thursday night. The rangers were asleep in camp when awakened by a volley of shots from the darkness. A pitched battle ensued and four of the attacking party were killed, one fatally wounded and two captured. The rangers escaped unscathed.

The situation in Starr county was brought about by alleged election irregularities, due to political clubs supplying Mexican residents with poll tax receipts and insisting that they be allowed to vote. Judge Welch had gone from his home in Corpus Christi, to be present at Rio Grande City on election day in an effort to prevent disorders. He was assassinated while he was asleep Monday night.

It is charged that armed representatives of political clubs controlling the Mexican vote patrolled the voting places on election day and refused to allow members of the opposing faction to vote. Several shooting affrays occurred, but no one was killed or wounded. It is charged by one faction that Judge Welch was murdered by a hired assassin and that Thursday night's ambuscade of the rangers was instigated by the same faction.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

An Inadequate Supply of Freight Cars and Labor Is a Retarding Influence.

New York.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

Business experienced the customary interruption during election week, but a more permanent retarding influence was the inadequate supply of freight cars and labor. Many industries are severely handicapped by traffic delays. In other cases there is idle machinery because hands cannot be secured, despite the high wages offered. This difficulty threatens to reduce the lumber cut materially.

Several strikes are threatened, and one railway system has advanced wages to the extent of a million dollars monthly. Retail trade is well maintained by lower temperature in some sections of the country and the full employment of labor at all points, while wholesale business in holiday goods is very heavy.

A Series of Incendiary Fires.

New York.—One woman is dead, a man is in a hospital suffering from severe burns, 2,000 persons fled from their homes in panic and thousands more passed a sleepless night as a result of a series of incendiary fires in the two blocks bounded by Sixtieth and Sixty-first streets and Columbus and West End avenues early Friday. Scores of persons whose lives were endangered by the conflagration were rescued by firemen. In all there were five fires, every one of them incendiary, between midnight and 3 o'clock in the morning.

Nine Workmen Killed.

Long Beach, Cal.—Five stories of the central wing of the new $750,000 Bixby hotel collapsed Friday, carrying nine workmen to death in the tons of tangled wreckage. About 150 artisans and laborers were scattered through the structure at the moment it fell.

A Fatal Mistake.

Marquette, Mich.—Lee Hall, an attorney of Ionia, Mich., was mistaken for a deer and killed in the woods near Fibre, Chippewa county, Friday by S. C. Miller, a lumberman.

WOMEN'S WOES

Thousands of women suffer daily backache, headache, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and a dozen other symptoms of kidney trouble, but lay it to other causes. Make no mistake. Keep the kidneys well, and these aches and troubles will disappear.

Mrs. Anthony Cadrette, 77 Mechanic street, Leominster, Mass., says: "My sight failed, I had sharp pain in my back and bearing-down pains through the hips. I was nervous, fretful and miserable. The urine was greatly disordered and I began to have the swellings of dropsy. I was running down fast, when I started using Doan's Kidney Pills. A wonderful change came and after using them faithfully for a short time I was well."

SKIN ERUPTIONS 35 YEARS.

Suffered Severely with Eczema All Over Body—A Thousand Thanks to Cuticura Remedies.

"For over thirty-five years I was a severe sufferer from eczema. The eruption was not confined to any one place. It was all over my body, limbs and even on my head. I am sixty years old and an old soldier, and have been examined by the Government Board over fifteen times, and they said there was no cure for me. I have taken all kinds of medicine and have spent large sums of money for doctors, without avail. A short time ago I decided to try the Cuticura Remedies, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, two treatments in all, I am now well and completely cured. A thousand thanks to Cuticura. I cannot speak too highly of the Cuticura Remedies. John T. Roach, Richmondale, Ross Co., Ohio, July 17, 1905."

The Zulu War Cry.

The Zulu war cry, used whenever they take the field by the South African footballers now in London, has puzzled our newspapers, not one of which seems able to spell it correctly, says Notes and Queries. The Daily Express gives it as "Igamilzho," and the Daily Mail as "Gammillo." The cry really consists of two words, and should be written "Igama layo." "Igama" is Zulu for "name," and "layo" is a possessive pronoun, meaning either "his" or "their." Thus the Daily Mail, although quite wrong in its orthography of the cry, is right in saying that it merely means "That is his name." The explanation is that Zulu etiquette does not allow warriors, when they rush into battle, to mention the names of their enemies, but the leaders shout out, "That is his name," pointing to the victims with their spears.

Waiter's Modest Request.

Melba admires the independence of her fellow Australians, but on one occasion she had rather a pronounced experience with what she calls their "delightful impudence." She had waited a long time for dinner at her hotel in a large mining town and finally made a sharp complaint to the waiter. "Well, ma'am," said he, coolly, "you might sing us a song to pass the time." This to a vocalist who one evening received $5,000 from William Waldorf Astor for singing four songs in his London mansion.

HARD TO SEE.

Even When the Facts About Coffee Are Plain.

It is curious how people will refuse to believe what one can clearly see. Tell the average man or woman that the slow but cumulative poisonous effect of caffeine—the alkaloid in tea and coffee—tends to weaken the heart, upset the nervous system and cause indigestion, and they may laugh at you if they don't know the facts.

Prove it by science or by practical demonstration in the recovery of coffee drinkers from the above conditions, and a large per cent. of the human family will shrug their shoulders, take the drugs and—keep on drinking coffee or tea.

"Coffee never agreed with me nor with several members of our household," writes a lady. It enervates, depresses and creates a feeling of languor and heaviness. It was only by leaving off coffee and using Postum that we discovered the cause and cure of these ills.

"The only reason, I am sure, why Postum is not used altogether to the exclusion of ordinary coffee is, many persons do not know and do not seem willing to learn the facts and how to prepare this nutritious beverage. There's only one way—according to directions—boil it fully 15 minutes. Then it is delicious." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville, in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Humorous Typographical Error.

Henry Watterson says that the oddest and most humorous transposition of the types that ever came within his observation was in a New York paper which used to print its shipping news on the same page with the obituaries. One morning a long list of respectable names were set forth under the marine head, 'Passed Through Hell Gate Yesterday.'"

The Vanishing Human Voice.

A few more years and our ears will no longer be charmed by the sweet tones of the tenor and the soprano. The present fashion of violent sport is having a most disastrous effect on the singing powers of the lungs and it is probable that our descendants will never be able to enjoy the operas of Verdi or Rosini owing to the dearth of singers.—La Republique Francaise.

RESULT OF ELECTIONS.

REPUBLICANS WILL HAVE A LARGE MAJORITY IN THE NEXT CONGRESS.

HUGHES WINS IN NEW YORK.

Ohio, Michigan and Illinois Give Large Republican Majorities — Pennsylvania and Massachusetts Go Republican — Democratic Landslide in Minnesota

THE CONGRESSIONAL SITUATION.

Chicago, Ill.—Returns received up to 1 o'clock Thursday morning show that the republicans have elected 223 congressmen and the democrats 163.

NEW YORK.—With the official vote of but three counties missing, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler apparently is elected lieutenant governor on the democratic-Independence league ticket by a plurality approximating 1,700 votes over Linn Bruce, republican. To arrive at these figures, Bruce's probable pluralities in the counties of Essex, Ontario and Niagara are based on the vote for the republican gubernatorial candidate. Fulton county is also missing, excepting a statement of Bruce's plurality over Chanler. While slight changes may be made in the returns from several counties, it is not believed they will materially reduce Chanler's lead, but may increase it. It appears that all the other candidates on the democratic state ticket are elected by small pluralities.

The republican managers have decided to make applications in the supreme court of the several counties in this vicinity for orders compelling the production in court of all "void and protested" ballots. These will be counted in court.

CHARLES E. HUGHES.

It is expected that Herbert Parsons, chairman of the republican county committee, will have charge of this matter for New York City. In every county where a count of these ballots is deemed necessary, the county chairman will make like application to the supreme court.

Very nearly full returns from all counties of the vote for governor give Hughes 746,334, Hearst 684,722; Hughes' plurality 61,612.

Hughes' plurality outside of Greater New York was 136,338; Hearst's plurality in Greater New York was 74,726.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Complete returns from 61 of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania and careful estimates from the other six counties give Edwin S. Stuart, republican candidate for governor, a plurality of 52,533 over Lewis Emery, the fusion candidate.

Samuel P. Rotan, republican, was elected as district attorney in Philadelphia by 40,000, his friends say, defeating Clarence D. Gibboney, who had the support of the reform forces and the democrats.

The incoming legislature will be strongly republican, although not so overwhelmingly as it was two years ago.

One of the chief issues in the state campaign was the new capitol, which was dedicated on October 4. The fusionists claimed that several million dollars of overcharges and duplications are represented in furnishing and equipping the building. The republican candidates pledged themselves if elected to honestly investigate those charges and to place the responsibility for the alleged extravagance where it rightfully belonged.

BOSTON, Mass.—The republicans after a short but spirited campaign, were victorious in the state election Tuesday, Gov. Guild being re-elected by a considerably increased plurality over last year, while his opponent, District Attorney John B. Moran, of Boston, the candidate of the democratic and prohibition parties and Independence league, received a somewhat larger vote than that given the democratic candidate a year ago.

With two-thirds of the state vote tabulated, Mr. Guild's plurality was estimated late last night at about 37,000.

The republicans re-elected their entire state ticket, although Lieut. Gov. Draper fell considerably behind Gov. Guild. The next legislature will be republican by the usual large majority in both houses, and this will ensure the election of United States Senator Murray Crane, of Dalton, who is at present completing a brief term.

The Massachusetts delegation in congress will remain practically the same, although spirited contests in the Fifth, Sixth, Tenth and Eleventh districts made the results in those sections doubtful at an early stage of the tabulation.

CARMI A. THOMPSON.

COLUMBUS, O.—It is definitely settled by later returns that the Fourth, Ninth and Seventeenth congressional districts have gone democratic.

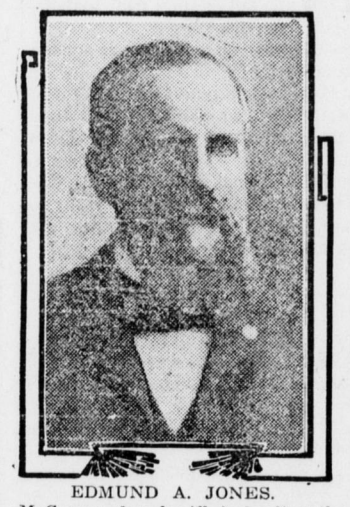
Chairman Dick last night reiterated his claim of a plurality of 75,000 for Carmi Thompson, republican candidate for secretary of state, although the committee has received complete returns from only 59 out of the 88 counties in the state. Chairman Garber, of the democratic state committee, does not dispute Dick's figures, but he is claiming the election of five out of the 21 congressmen in the state, the late returns indicating a plurality of 48 for Sherwood, the independent democratic candidate in the Ninth district. Chairman Dick refuses to concede Sherwood's election, saying that with the result so close, it will require the official canvass of the vote to determine it.

Secretary Flickinger, of the governor's office, who came up from Dayton, gives Harding's plurality for congress, over ex-Gov. James E. Campbell, as 1,600. Butler county defeated the ex-governor, as he ran enough ahead of Harding in Montgomery county alone to have elected him.

Cincinnati, O.—According to the returns, Thompson, republican, for secretary of state, carried the state by a plurality of 47,256. Thompson's plurality in Hamilton county is 8,671. All the republicans on the county ticket are elected, except the infirmary director, by pluralities ranging from 581 to 3,502.

Returns indicate that Stanley Matthews, democratic candidate for circuit judge, ran ahead of the rest of the democratic ticket and that he is elected by a plurality of about 75. The circuit comprises Hamilton, Butler, Warren, Clermont and Clinton counties.

Cleveland, O. — Cuyahoga county has gone democratic, except for Herman Baehr (rep.), who has been elected county recorder. Returns indicate that every other democrat has been elected by pluralities probably running from 3,000 to 6,000.



EDMUND A. JONES.

McGorray, for sheriff, is leading the democratic ticket, with Addams, for insolvency judge, a close second.

DETROIT, Mich.—Gov. Warner and the entire republican state ticket have been elected by 60,000 to 100,000 majority, the republican congressional candidates in each of the 12 Michigan districts have been elected, and the republicans will have a large majority in the state legislature, with a possibility of its entire membership.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Illinois went republican by over 100,000; the vote for Smulski, state treasurer, footing about 120,000. Chicago gave the state ticket a plurality of over 50,000. The republicans lost three congressional districts in Chicago and two more down state, making a gain of five for the democrats and giving them six instead of one in the Illinois congressional delegation.

Danville, Ill. — Official returns from all the counties in the Eighteenth district give Joseph Cannon, speaker of the national house of representatives, a plurality of 10,088. This is 2,000 larger than his plurality four years ago.

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Gov. John Johnson, democrat, has been re-elected governor of Minnesota by at least 40,000 plurality. The remainder of the state ticket is republican with the possible exception of secretary of state.

Minnesota will not send a solid republican delegation to congress this year, as has been the case for a decade. James T. McCleary, representative from the Second congressional district, and member of the ways and means committee of the house, has been defeated by his democratic opponent, Winfield S. Hammond.

DES MOINES, Ia.—Complete returns from Iowa show 196,822 votes for Gov. Cummins to 174,366 for Porter, dem., giving Cummins a plurality of 22,456 for governor.

TOPEKA, Kan.—Chairman Crummer, of the republican state committee, declared last evening that there was absolutely no question of Hoch's re-election for governor by at least 2,500 majority. "We have returns from 93 of the 105 counties in Kansas," he said, "and the information is almost as correct as official. There is no chance for Hoch's defeat."

Topeka, Kan. — Although there are still five Kansas counties not heard from, it is generally believed that Hoch, rep., for governor, has been elected by between 3,500 and 4,000 plurality over Harris.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—From nearly complete returns from all counties, the democrats have carried the state by a plurality of 7,640, electing all candidates on the state ticket and 12 of the 16 congressmen. The republicans elected congressmen in Kansas City and St. Louis, but lost all the districts in the state which had been swept into the republican ranks two years ago.

WHEELING, W. Va.—The complete turns from the different counties in West Virginia increase the size of the republican victory. The congressional majorities are approximately as follows:

First district—Hubbard, rep., 4,000.
Second district—Sturgis, rep., 2,800.
Third district—Gaines, rep., 3,500.
Fourth district—Woodyard, rep., 2,900.
Fifth district—Hughes, rep., 4,850.

Total republican majority for the state ticket is about 18,000. The legislature is republican by more than the majority in 1904, when it was 57 on joint ballot.

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—With but a single town missing, Woodruff, the republican candidate for governor, has a plurality of 20,709 votes over Thayer, democrat.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—According to the latest returns received throughout the state, Indiana went about 30,000 republican. The democrats gained two congressmen. The latest returns show that the republicans elected nine congressmen and the democrats four. The legislature will be republican on joint ballot by about 30.

BOISE, Idaho.—Gov. Gooding is re-elected by a plurality of from 7,000 to 9,000. The legislature will contain 48 republicans and 24 democrats. This insures the election of William Borah as United States senator to succeed Senator Dubois.

FARGO, N. D.—"We concede the defeat of Gov. Sarles by Mr. Burke, his democratic opponent, by a probable plurality of 2,000," said Chairman Hanna, of the republican state central committee, last evening. "We also concede the defeat of John K. Nauff, our candidate for judge of the supreme court, by Judge Fisk on the democratic ticket by 6,000. We are confident that the rest of the republican ticket has been elected."

DENVER, Col.—Returns show the election of the entire republican state, congressional and judicial tickets and a republican majority of 30 or more on joint ballot in the next legislature, which will elect a senator to succeed Thomas M. Patterson. Simon Guggenheim is the only avowed republican candidate for the senatorship and he has the support of the party leaders.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—With only a few mountain counties to hear from, and these probably increasing his lead, Gov. Beckham has won his fight against Senator McCreary for the nomination for the United States senatorship in the democratic primaries. Samuel W. Hager was nominated for governor in the same primary by a majority of about 15,000. The complexion of Kentucky's representation in congress shows some change, the republicans gaining two congressmen, giving them a total of four.

CHEYENNE, Wyo.—Majorities for Congressman Mondell and all republican state candidates are from 5,000 to 6,000. Gov. Brooks is running ahead of the ticket. The democrats will not have more than five members in the legislature.

SAN JUAN, P. R.—The unionist party scored an overwhelming victory at the polls Tuesday, carrying all the seven districts of the island. The republicans are left without representation in the next house of delegates. In the last election the unionists carried five districts and the republicans two. The unionists won in a majority of the municipalities.

HONOLULU, Hawaii.—It is probable that the republicans will contest the result in Honolulu. The island of Hawaii went democratic, except for delegate to congress, Kalanianaole, republican, receiving a majority.

SALT LAKE, Utah. — The republicans in Utah have elected their state ticket by the usual plurality, returning Joseph Howell to congress and electing Joseph E. Frick justice of the supreme court.

In Salt Lake county, where the American or anti-Mormon party centered its efforts, the result is in doubt. The Americans have a plurality of the votes in Salt Lake City, but this may be overcome by the republicans in the country outside of the city. The democratic vote in Salt Lake city shows a falling off of probably 30 per cent.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—At 9 o'clock last night George Stone, chairman of the republican state central committee, said: "Reports from the state are coming in slowly. There is no doubt as to the result, it is only a question of plurality. Gillette has carried San Francisco by a plurality of 500 to 1,000 and the entire republican state ticket, including eight congressmen, has been elected by a plurality exceeding 25,000."

RALEIGH, N. C.—In North Carolina the vote was light, but estimated to be democratic by about 30,000. The Eighth district is doubtful, with two counties showing democratic gains of 450 over two years ago. The Tenth district is close, with the democrats slightly in the lead.

AUSTIN, Tex.—The total vote cast in Tuesday's election was small, not exceeding 400,000 votes all told, some 135,000 of which represent the combined vote of the republican, the reorganized republican, socialist, socialist labor and prohibition parties. The next legislature will be democratic overwhelmingly.

RENO, Nev.—Bartlett, democratic candidate for congress, is leading Smith by a safe majority. Returns from the state indicate a complete victory for the democratic silver party candidates.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — Partial returns from seven counties out of 25 in New Mexico give joint statehood a majority of 2,000. Reports so far received indicate that the territory will go for jointure by from 4,000 to 7,000. Reports indicate the election of Andrews, rep., delegate to congress.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—Reports from the state are meager, owing to the scratching of county tickets. Incomplete returns indicate the election of the republican congressmen and the republican state ticket by not less than 35,000.

GUTHRIE, Okla.—The constitution of the new state of Oklahoma will be written by democrats. Vernon H. Whiting, secretary of the Oklahoma republican central committee, concedes the democrats 43 delegates, while Chairman Dunn, of the democratic committee, says there will be at least 78 democratic delegates on the floor of the convention. Republican managers admit that Oklahoma proved a great disappointment.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — All the democratic candidates in Florida are elected.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Returns from the Third district indicate the election of James W. Murphy, dem., over Congressman Joseph W. Babcock, rep., by a plurality of 300.

WILMINGTON, Del.—The republicans have carried Delaware and elected Burton for congress, over Marvel, democrat. They will also control the Delaware legislature.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Late returns indicate the election of Higgins, democrat, for governor.

Chicago, Ill.—The people at the prohibition national headquarters in this city are congratulating themselves upon the excellent showing which they claim the prohibitionists made in the different states Tuesday. A large number of dispatches have been received and Charles R. Jones, the chairman of the national prohibition committee, said that the total vote of the party in the different states will exceed 325,000, whereas the total for Swallow for president in 1904 was 257,419.

One thousand coopers are on strike in Chicago, asking for a wage increase of three cents per barrel.

By a fire in a tenement house in Jersey City Mrs. James Ryan and John McGuire received injuries that probably will result in death.

A Murder and Robbery.

Stafford Springs, Conn. — Mrs. Henry Williams, about 50 years old, was found murdered in her home near here Thursday afternoon. Robbery apparently was the motive, and the murderer is believed to be a tramp. The body of Mrs. Williams was found lying near a stove on the floor of the kitchen, with the throat cut, head battered and a towel twisted around her neck. Near the body lay a knife and a club. Following the murder the man made a search for money, for the house was ransacked and about $100 in money taken.

Preacher Hinshaw Is Rearrested.

Indianapolis, Ind.—William E. Hinshaw, a Methodist minister convicted and sentenced to prison for wife murder in 1895 and paroled conditionally in 1905, was arrested Thursday near Winchester on orders issued by Gov. Hanly and was brought to the governor's office to show cause why he should not be returned to prison. The complaint was made to the governor by George R. Freeman, sheriff-elect of Wabash county, that Hinshaw and Freeman's wife have been guilty of improper conduct since Hinshaw's release from prison.

A Former "Barley King" Dies.

Winona, Minn.—A private telegram announces the death at Cedar Rapids, Ia., of H. J. O'Neill, aged 59 years, known as the "Barley King" from 1890 to 1898, during which time he was at the head of the O'Neill Grain Co., which had offices in Chicago and in Winona. The concern during these years controlled the barley market and had under its direction the largest string of grain elevators in the world. At one time O'Neill was reputed to have been worth several million dollars. Family troubles cost him almost his entire fortune.

As Englishmen View the Election.

London, Eng.—All the morning newspapers publish editorial articles on the result of the election in New York. With scarcely an exception they comment on the close vote as an indication of the popular discontent with enormous combinations of capital. The Daily Telegraph thinks the moral is that Americans, while "not quite ready to accept 'Hearstism' in full," are "heartily sick of being robbed by trusts and corporations." The Mail considers the result as an evidence of "growing exasperation against trusts and their tactics."

Robinson Crusoe.

The second volume of "Robinson Crusoe," by Daniel De Foe, published on Aug. 20, 1719, was the first story published in England with illustrations. The illustrations consisted of a map of the world, in which the different voyages of the hero of the tale were delineated. The first volume of "Robinson Crusoe" was published in April, 1719, and became popular at once. A second edition was printed seventeen days after the first, twenty-five days later another followed, and a fourth was published on Aug. 8 of the same year. On Aug. 20 the second volume was issued under the title of "The Further Adventures of Robinson Crusoe; being the second and last part of his life and of the strange, surprising account of his travels round three parts of the globe. Written by himself. To which is added a map of the world, in which is delineated the voyage of Robinson Crusoe."

A Curiosity In Figures.

The following remarkable contribution to the curiosities of figures consists of two series of numbers, of which no description is necessary, as they speak for themselves. Perhaps there is no special profit in them, but they are worth preserving nevertheless:

1 times 9 plus 2 equals 11.
12 times 9 plus 3 equals 111.
123 times 9 plus 4 equals 1111.
1234 times 9 plus 5 equals 11111.
12345 times 9 plus 6 equals 111111.
123456 times 9 plus 7 equals 1111111.
1234567 times 9 plus 8 equals 11111111.
12345678 times 9 plus 9 equals 111111111.
1 times 8 plus 1 equals 9.
12 times 8 plus 2 equals 98.
123 times 8 plus 3 equals 987.
1234 times 8 plus 4 equals 9876.
12345 times 8 plus 5 equals 98765.
123456 times 8 plus 6 equals 987654.
1234567 times 8 plus 7 equals 9876543.
12345678 times 8 plus 8 equals 98765432.
123456789 times 8 plus 9 equals 987654321.

White Animals Can't Smell.

"Pure white animals," said a pet stock dealer, "have no sense of smell. Hence they are continually eating things that disagree with them, and in eight cases out of ten poison themselves and die. Pure white pigs should never be allowed to run loose in the fields and woods. For, without the protection of a sense of smell, such pigs, when they get out, eat all sorts of poisonous roots and berries and die off rapidly. "In Africa the white rhinoceros poisons itself by eating the euphorbia, and pure white sheep are difficult to rear because they are continually munching shrubs and grasses that don't agree with them."

Butler's Flag.

Feb. 21, 1866, General Benjamin F. Butler presented to congress the first genuine American flag, made of American materials by American labor, ever constructed in this country. Prior to that time all American government flags had been made of English bunting. Since then all our official flags have been the product exclusively of American material and labor. There were twenty-six stars in the flag at that time.

His Last Name.

A gentleman once asked a lad what was his last name.

"Johnny," replied the boy.

"Well, what is your full name?"

"Johnny Brown, sir."

"Well, how can Johnny be your last name?"

"Because, sir, when I was born my name was Brown, and Johnny wasn't given to me till I was a month old."

A Narrow Escape.

The company had assembled in the church, but the bridegroom was nowhere to be found. Finally a messenger announced that the young man had been run over and killed while on his way to the church.

"And just think," she said a month afterward to a friend, "what a narrow escape I had from becoming a widow!"

A Prank of Memory.

Why have we memory sufficient to retain the minutest circumstances that have happened to us and yet not enough to remember how often we have related them to the same person? —La Rochefoucauld.

A Wonder.

"Crime worked a miracle with that dumb convict."

"How so?"

"He was sent here for uttering forged [illegible]."—Baltimore American.

We would advise C. O. Dice to have shoes made to order for dogs.

BLUE BELL.

CANOE RUN.

A very enjoyable farewell party was given in honor of B. W. McClure on Tuesday evening, Nov. 6th, who will take their departure for their new future home in Johnsonburg shortly, Mr. McClure having accepted the position of Superintendent of the mines near there. The many friends they leave behind were very loud in their expressions of regret, at having to part with such estimable residents and neighbors, but all join heartily in best wishes for their future success and happiness in the new field of labor. After partaking of the bountuous feast prepared in the most edible style by the ladies, cards, music, and games of various kinds were indulged in until the small hours when the assembled dispersed wishing them God-speed.

W. R. Smith's trolley line which has been out of service for the past few days is again in fine working order. To observe Mr. Smith passing to and fro, would remind you greatly of the "Empire State Limited."

We are informed that the new opera house to be erected here, and for which plans have been drawn and contracts, have been let, is to be commenced at once.

Alex Mason formerly of Sterling Run, now of Shyrock, W. Va., Greenbriar county, is spending a few days among his many friends throughout Cameron county. Mr. Mason is connected with the vast lumber interests of Judge Huntley in that section. He says the climate cannot be excelled in any part of the country and the people are all that could be desired in the way of hospitality. Since August 1905, Judge Huntley's men have taken twenty millions of logs from this tract, and expect to have the job finished by May 1907. They have fourteen miles of railroad and two engines, which to transport the timber. This plant is only two hours journey from where H. H. Cloyes is representing the vast lumber interests of the Droney Lumber Co.

Ralph Goodall, the celebrated poet and songster of Cameron counties is at present working on a new sentimental song, which promises to be the hit of the season. He informs us that his last popular song, entitled "Waiting till the train comes in," was produced at the "Waldorf Theatre" last Friday evening, in New York and was a decided success, also receiving favorable mention by the leading New York papers. Mr. Goodall ranks among the best composers in the conntry, and is well and favorably known throughout the state.

A. W. Smith and B. J. Collins have parted from their luxuriant mustaches as the result of an election bet. As both gentleman are fine looking men with or without facial adornment, the change will not be as marked as it would be under other conditions, although some of their friends consider it an ill proceeding, Mr. Smith respectfully submits the following verses:

The winter winds are coming on,
No more the sun will blister,
Election day is also past,
And we have lost our whiskers.

No more our lylocks we will curl,
We've lost our wind resisters,
So let King winters blizzards blow,
They cannot jar our whiskers,

This remedy is recommended by dealers who have sold it for many years and know its value.

It has received thousands of testimonials from grateful people.

It has been prescribed by physicians with the most satisfactory results.

It has often saved life before medicine could have been sent for or a physician summoned.

It only costs a quarter. Can you afford to risk so much for so little? BUY IT NOW.

EVERY FARMER WANTS IT

Rust destroys more farm machinery than does wear. 6-5-4 kills rust; dissolves it, just as water does salt. Get a 25c can of 6-5-4 and save your farm machinery. Any child can apply it; no hard work; goes on like paint, only easier, and dries in 10 minutes, leaving a fine black finish. 6-5-4 is not a paint; it does not cover the rust but, chemically dissolves it and then is absorbed by the iron which is thus made rust proof. 6-5-4 is very thin and runs into the cracks where the brush cannot go. Be sure and get 6-5-4 it is just as good for stoves, stove pipes and wire screens as it it is for machinery.

If your dealer hasn't it, F. V. Heilman has.

The Swiss Fourth of July.

Aug. 1 is the Swiss Fourth of July, the national fete day. A traveler tells how he helped to celebrate it one year at one of the climbing centers in the Valais by eating the sumptuous dinner provided by the hotel without extra charge, applauding the fireworks display and a bonfire lighted high on the mountain side and shouting "Hourra!" at the end of a patriotic speech extolling the ancient military glories and present republican democracy of Switzerland. Next morning came the strange sequel. The orator of the occasion, the most distinguished native visitor in the place, was appealed to as one who would certainly know the name of the Swiss president, but even he could not remember it. Nobody ever can. The name of that unassuming functionary is always less familiar in Switzerland than that of the lieutenant governor is in Illinois. He is merely the democracy's temporary official.

Jail Born Books.

Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress" is the most famous and of its class incomparably the best English book ever written in prison. Bunyan was a prisoner in Bedford jail from 1660 to 1672 and in addition to his immortal allegory wrote "Grace Abounding" and "The Holy City" during those twelve years. Raleigh, who was a prisoner in the tower, 1603-14, occupied seven years of his captivity in writing his "History of the World." "The King's Quair," a long and romantic love poem, was written by James I. of Scotland when in prison at Windsor castle in 1423. Smollett, during his three months' detention in the King's Bench prison for libel, wrote "The Adventures of Sir Launcelot Graves," and during a similar experience at Newgate in 1703 Defoe wrote a "Collection of Casualties and Disasters."

Rheumatism Crazes the Mind

URIC-O, An Internal Treatment for the Blood—It is Widely Recommended as a Cure.

Every sufferer from Rheumatism is familiar with the sleepless nights, and nerve binding, muscle twisting pains which they have to endure. Vapor baths have been used, Mt. Clemens has been visited, and hundreds of dollars spent in search of relief. There is but little use of other experiments, as relief and a permanent cure for all forms of Rheumatism can only be found in Smith's Specific Uric-O. It matters little how long one has suffered from the trouble, or how intense the suffering, Uric-O will cure you. It cures by its direct action upon the blood; muscles, and kidneys, neutralizing poisonous uric and rheumatic acids. Druggists and Physicians everywhere are recommending Uric-O, because they know that at last there has been a remedy prepared which actually cures the disease. Uric-O is manufactured by the Smith Drug Company, Syracuse, N. Y. Is supplied to users in large size bottles, which sell for $1.00. Your Druggist can supply you with the remedy, or you can order direct. Samples and circulars will be forwarded free to all who apply. Use Uric-O for Rheumatism only. It may possibly save your life.

CHAPTER V—Continued.

Those who knew her best said it was a warning to be heeded in Miss Virginia Carteret when her eyes were downcast and her voice sank to its softest cadence.

"Why, certainly; how simple!" she said, taking her cousin's arm again; and the secretary went in to set the wires at work in Winton's affair.

Now Miss Carteret was a woman in every fiber of her, but among her gifts she might have counted some that were, to say the least, super-feminine. One of these was a measure of discretion which would have been fairly creditable in a past master of diplomacy.

So, while the sympathetic part of her was crying out for a chance to talk Winton's threatened danger over with some one, she lent herself outwardly to the Reverend Billy's mood—which was one of scenic enthusiasm; this without prejudice to a growing determination to intervene in behalf of fair play for Winton if she could find a way.

But the way obstinately refused to discover itself. The simple thing to do would be to appeal to her uncle's sense of justice. It was not like him to fight with ignoble weapons, she thought, and a tactful word in season might make him recall the order to the superintendent. But she could not make the appeal without betraying Jastrow. She knew well enough that the secretary had no right to show her the telegrams; knew also that Mr. Somerville Darrah's first word would be a demand to know how she had learned the company's business secrets. Regarding Jastrow as little as a high-bred young woman to whom sentiment is as the breath of life can regard a man who is quite devoid of it, she was still far enough from the thought of effacing him.

To this expedient there was an unhopeful alternative: namely, the sending, by the Reverend Billy, or, in the last resort, by herself, of a warning message to Winton. But there were obstacles seemingly insuperable. She had not the faintest notion of how such a warning should be addressed; and again, the operator at Argentine was a Colorado & Grand River employe, doubtless loyal to his salt, in which case the warning message would never get beyond his waste basket.

"Getting too chilly for you out here?—want to go in?" asked the Reverend Billy, when the scenic enthusiasm began to outwear itself.

"No; but I am tired of the sentry-go part of it—ten steps and a turn," she confessed. "Can't we walk on the track a little way?"

"We can trot down and have a look at their construction camp, if you like," he suggested, and thitherward they went.

It was Virginia who first marked the boxed-up tent standing on the slope.

"What do you suppose that little house-tent is for?" she asked.

"I don't know," said Calvert. Then he saw the wires and ventured a guess which hit the mark.

"I didn't suppose they would have a telegraph office," she commented, with hope rising again.

"Oh, yes; they'd have to have a wire; one of their own. Under the circumstances they could hardly use ours."

"No," she rejoined, absently. She was scanning the group of steel handlers in the hope that a young man in a billy-cock hat and with a cigarette between his lips would shortly reveal himself.

She found him after a time and turned quickly to her cousin.

"There is Mr. Adams down there by the engine. Do you think he would come over and speak to us if he knew we were here?"

The Reverend Billy's smile was of honest admiration.

"How could you doubt it? Wait here a minute and I'll call him for you."

He was gone before she could reply—across the ice bridge spanning one of the pools, and up the rough, frozen embankment of the new line. There were armed guards here, too, as well as at the front, and one of them halted him at the picket line. But Adams saw and recognized him, and presently the two were crossing to where Virginia stood waiting.

"Eheu! what a little world we live in, Miss Virginia! Who would have thought of meeting you here?" said the technologian, taking her hand at the precise elevation prescribed by good form—Boston good form.

"The shock is mutual," she laughed. "I must say that you and Mr. Winton have chosen a highly unconventional environment for your sketching field."

"I'm down," he admitted, cheerfully; "please don't trample on me. But really, it wasn't all fib. Jack does do things with a pencil—other things besides maps and working profiles, I mean. Won't you come over and let me do the honors of the studio?" with a grandiloquent arm-sweep meant to include the construction camp in general and the "dinkey" caboose in particular.

It was the invitation she would have angled for, but she was too wise to assent too readily.

"Oh, no; I think we mustn't. I'm afraid Mr. Winton might not like it."

"Not like it? If you'll come he'll never forgive himself for not being here to 'shoot up' the camp for you in person. He is away, you know; gone to Carbonate for the day."

"Ought we to go, Cousin Billy?" she asked, shifting, not the decision, but the responsibility for it, to broader shoulders.

"Why not, if you care to?" said the athlete, to whom right-of-way fights were mere matters of business in no wise conflicting with the social ameliorations.

Virginia hesitated. There was a thing to be said to Mr. Adams, and that without delay; but how could she say it with her cousin standing by to make an impossible trio out of any attempted duet confidential? A willingness to see that Winton had fair play need not carry with it an open desertion to the enemy. She must not forget to be loyal to her salt; and, besides, Mr. Somerville Darrah's righteous indignation was not lightly to be ignored.

But the upshot of the hesitant pause was a decision to brave the consequences—all of them; so she took Calvert's arm for the slippery crossing of the ice bridge.

Once on his own domain, Adams did the honors of the camp as thoroughly and conscientiously as if the hour held no care heavier than the entertainment of Miss Virginia Carteret.

"Oh, how comfortable!" she exclaimed, when he had shown her all the space-saving contrivances of the field office. "And this is where you and Mr. Winton work?"

"It is where we eat and sleep," corrected Adams. "And speaking of eating: it is hopelessly the wrong end of the day—or it would be in Boston—but our Chinaman won't know the difference. Let me have him make you a dish of tea," and the order was given before she could protest.

"CAN YOU SEND ALL THAT?"

"While we are waiting on Ah Foo I'll show you some of Jack's sketches," he went on, finding a portfolio and opening it upon the drawing board.

"Are you quite sure Mr. Winton won't mind?" she asked.

"Mind? He'd give a month's pay to be here to show them himself. He is peacock vain of his one small accomplishment, Winton is—bores me to death with it sometimes."

"Really?" was the mocking rejoinder, and they began to look at the sketches.

They were heads, most of them, impressionistic studies in pencil or pastel, with now and then a pen-and-ink bearing evidence of more painstaking after-work. They were made on bits of map paper, the backs of old letters, and not a few on leaves torn from an engineer's note book.

"They don't count for much in an artistic way," said Adams, with the brutal frankness of a friendly critic, "but they will serve to show you that I wasn't all kinds of an embroiderer when I was telling you about Winton's proclivities the other day."

"I shouldn't apologize for that, if I were you," she retorted. "It is well past apology, don't you think?" And then: "What is this one?"

They had come to the last of the sketches, which was a rude map. It was penciled on the leaf of a memorandum, and Adams recognized it as the outline Winton had made and used in explaining the right-of-way entanglement.

"It is a map," he said, "one that Jack drew day before yesterday when he was trying to make me understand the situation up here. I wonder why he kept it? Is there anything on the other side?"

She turned the leaf, and they both went speechless for the moment. The reverse of the scrap of cross-ruled paper held a very fair likeness of a face which Virginia's mirror had oftenest portrayed; a sketch setting forth in a few vigorous strokes of the pencil the impressionist's ideal of the "goddess fresh from the bath."

"By Jove," exclaimed Adams, when he could find the word for his surprise. Then he tried to turn it off lightly. "There is a good bit more of the artist in Jack than I have been giving him credit for. Don't you know, he must have got the notion for that between two half-seconds—when you recognized me on the platform at Kansas City. It's wonderful!"

"So very wonderful that I think I shall keep it," she rejoined, not without a touch of austerity. Then she added: "Mr. Winton will probably never miss it. If he does, you will have to explain the best way you can." And Adams could only say "By Jove!" again, and busy himself with pouring the tea which Ah Foo had brought in.

In the nature of things the tea-drinking in the stuffy "dinkey" drawing-room was not prolonged. Time was flying. Virginia's errand of mercy was not yet accomplished, and Aunt Martha in her capacity of anxious chaperon was not to be forgotten. Also, Miss Carteret had a feeling that under his well-bred exterior Mr. Morton P. Adams was chafing like any barbarian industry captain at this unwarrantable intrusion and interruption.

So presently they all forthfared into the sun-bright, snow-blinding out-of-door world, and Virginia gathered up her courage and took her dilemma by the horns.

"I believe I have seen everything now except that tent-place up there," she asserted, groping purposefully for her opening.

Adams called up another smile of acquiescence. "That is our telegraph office. Would you care to see it?" The technologian was of those who shirk all or shirk nothing.

"I don't know why I should care to, but I do," she replied, with charming and childlike willfulness; so the three of them trudged up the slippery path to the operator's den on the slope.

Not to evade his hospitable duty in any part, Adams explained the use and need of a "front" wire, and Miss Carteret was properly interested.

"How convenient!" she commented. "And you can come up here and talk to anybody you like—just as if it were a telephone?"

"To anyone in the company's service," amended Adams. "It is not a commercial wire."

"Then let us send a message to Mr. Winton," she suggested, playing the part of the capricious ingenue to the very upcast of a pair of mischievous eyes. "I'll write it and you may sign it."

Adams stretched his complaisence the necessary additional inch and gave her a pencil and a pad of blanks. She wrote rapidly:

"Miss Carteret has been here admiring your drawings. She took one of them away with her, and I couldn't stop her without being rude. You shouldn't have done it without asking her permission. She says—"

"Oh, dear! I am making it awfully long. Does it cost so much a word?"

"No," said Adams, not without an effort. He was beginning to be distinctly disappointed in Miss Virginia, and was wondering in the inner depths of him what piece of girlish frivolity he was expected to sign and send to his chief. Meanwhile she went on writing:

"—I am to tell you not to get into any fresh trouble—not to let anyone else get you into trouble; by which I infer she means that some attempt will be made to keep you from returning on the evening train."

"There, can you send all that?" she asked, sweetly, giving the pad to the technologian.

Adams read the first part of the letter-length telegram with inward groanings, but the generous purpose of it struck him like a whip blow when he came to the thinly veiled warning. Also it shamed him for his unworthy judgment of Virginia.

"I thank you very heartily, Miss Carteret," he said, humbly. "It shall be sent word for word." Then, for the Reverend William's benefit: "Winton deserves all sorts of a snubbing for taking liberties with your portrait. I'll see that he gets more of it when he comes back."

LEARNING WAR ART

MANY ALIENS AT AMERICAN MILITARY SCHOOLS.

Is Uncle Sam Training Soldiers for Nations With Which He May Some Day Be at War?

While it is true that foreigners are admitted to West Point military academy as students only on application through official sources and by authority of congress, it is true that a number of foreign countries have been invited by our government to designate officers of infantry, cavalry and artillery to take the courses of instruction at the service schools at Fort Leavenworth and Fort Riley, and these invitations have been accepted by Mexico and by several Central and South American states.

In each instance of foreign cadets undergoing instruction at West Point and foreign officers receiving instruction at the infantry and cavalry school, Fort Leavenworth, and at the cavalry and field artillery school, Fort Riley, this government pays none of the expenses. Otherwise the cadets and officers are on the same footing as our own.

Ting Chia Chen, Chinese Cadet at West Point.

At the United States military academy at West Point there are four foreign cadets, A. R. Calvo, Costa Rico; Frutos Thomas Plaza, Ecuador; Ting Chia Chen and Ying Hsing Wen, China. Cadet Calvo is a member of the present second (junior) class, while the other young gentlemen are in the fourth (freshman) class, and it is interesting to know that the Chinese are the first cadets ever received at West Point from that country. Lieut. Brugere, of the French army, son of the late generalissimo, it at present at Fort Leavenworth, but the government of Mexico has been granted permission to send two infantry officers to the infantry and cavalry school and four officers of the cavalry and artillery to the school of application for cavalry and field artillery at Fort Riley. The two infantry officers are Lieut. Jorza Landa, Fifteenth battalion, and Lieut. Louis Manter, Twentieth battalion. The others are Lieut. Felipe Neri, of the Eighth cavalry; Sub-Lieut. Alfonso Rainos, Fourteenth cavalry, and Lieuts. Rodol Casillas and Arturo Certucha, of the artillery.

It is a singular fact that the United States naval academy at Annapolis has graduated more Japanese than any other foreign cadets. Until the death, already mentioned, of Kinjiro Matsukata, there were two Japanese cadets there; the survivor is Cadet Asahi Kitagaki.

The law providing for the admission of Japanese cadets was passed in 1868, and it has been in effect repealed by the clause of the naval bill which provides that foreign cadets can be appointed only by act of congress hereafter.

At the Culver summer naval school, on Lake Maxinkunkee, in Indiana, there are five foreign cadets, sent there and being educated at the expense of their respective governments. They are Jesus Castro Ansedondo, Evanisto Madero and Paul Madero, of Mexico; Engel C. Hidalgo, of Ecuador, and Tinsan Tsang, of China, and the latter during the winter takes a special course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in Boston.

International comity is the principal reason for the opening of our doors to the cadets and officers of other countries. The system is not peculiar to the United States, for all nations grant the same courtesy. At the great French school at St. Cyr and Sarmur many foreign officers take courses. At Sandhurst, the British military college, there are always foreign students, especially Chinese and Japanese. The biographies of the men who led the Japanese armies to victory over the Russians show that most of them received a part of their training in foreign schools.

The sending of foreign officers to our schools is merely a matter of international courtesy, and we are merely returning, in the case of France, a compliment that has at various times been paid to us by that country. In the case of the South American countries we are simply extending to them what other countries extend to them.

Rulers of nations and their ministers feel that this intercourse with foreigners is good for their own officers and cadets and that such courtesies tend in the long run toward amity and, consequently, toward peace.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.)

"I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice to girls in my condition, I am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.)

"It is with the feeling of utmost gratitude that I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my periods were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches.

"But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my periods are regular, and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

The Ideal Family Laxative.

is one that can be used by the entire family, young and old, weak and strong, without any danger of harmful effects. It should have properties which insure the same dose always having the same effect, otherwise the quantity will have to be increased and finally lose its effect altogether. These properties can be found in that old family remedy, Brandreth's Pills, because its ingredients are of the purest herbal extracts, and every pill is kept for three years before being sold, which allows them to mellow. We do not believe there is a laxative on the market that is so carefully made.

Brandreth's Pills are the same fine laxative tonic pills your grandparents used. They have been in use for over a century and are for sale everywhere, either plain or sugar-coated.

Going to Take a Day Off.

A postmaster, not many miles from Billville, posted the following notice on his shutter recently:

"All parties expectin' mail are hereby notified to git all that's comin' to 'em in advance—any time before next Thursday, that bein' the day we have app'inted to go huntin'—not havin' had a holiday from the government since July 4, and the said government seemin' to forget that bein' only human, we need rest and recreation occasional. There's some little mail here for the Joneses and the Tompinses—but it don't amount to much, as it's all got one-ecnt stamps on it. There ain't nuthin' much in the business nohow!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Edible Menu Card.

In London the latest thing is a "bill of eat" that you may finish your meal on. The sheet on which it is printed is the sugar paper used on the bottom of maccaroons, while the lettering is cake frosting. The London caterer who "invented" the edible menu card has been honored by the patronage of the king. The king "commanded" the caterer to teach his chef to make the edible novelty, and the king's chef produced it for a dinner at Windsor castle. There was much laughter as the king's guests discovered that the menu "cards" were good to eat. They promptly ate them. It is said that the only bad thing about the cards is the bad French, and that is quite digestible.

Purchased "Old Red House."

T. W. Leete, a prominent business man of Springfield, Mass., has purchased the historic "Old Red House" at Longmeadow, Mass., which was built 171 years ago, and has presented it to the town as a museum. The house was built by Simon Colton, a soldier of the French and Indian wars.

POULTRY AND BEES

NEST FOR EGG EATING HENS.

A Lake County (Ill.) correspondent of Prairie Farmer sends an illustration of a nest that he has devised for egg eaters. Our sketch brings out the idea fairly well. A false bottom is put on the middle of the nest box with a hole a little over two and one-half inches in diameter in the bottom. This hole should be just large enough for an egg to go through. The sides of the nest is packed with shaving, leaves or hay and a bit of burlap tacked about the hole and around the sides to make the nest.

A lower shelf is made extending only part way across the box. As shown in the cut when the egg, A, comes down through the hole in the bottom of the nest proper, it strikes on this padding, slides off from the second shelf and drops into a lower compartment and gradually rolls until it reaches the position of the last egg. Here it is handy for the hand-hole when the gatherer comes for the contents of the nest. This device is said to work very satisfactorily and prevents the hen from eating her egg simply because it disappears from her sight at once.

FOWLS WITHOUT LICE.

Don't Give Vermin a Foothold, and Your Task Will Be Easy.

Last summer the editor of the Farmers' Review visited the Maine experiment station. That station has done a great deal in the way of poultry investigation. Conditions there are of the very best, with the result that the enterprise is successful. One of the surprising things found there is that there are no lice. Consequently no lice killers have to be used; the chicks do not have to be greased after they are out of the shell; the birds do not have to be fed enough food to supply both themselves and the lice, and the perches do not have to be painted with anti-lice paint. All this expense and all this labor are saved.

It is a wonder that considering the great losses we experience from lice we do not take more precautions to entirely rid the poultry houses of them. A few years ago the Farmers' Review sent out inquiries to many poultry raisers as to the cause of their greatest losses. Most of the replies said that the greatest losses were due to lice. It may be that to lice are due far greater losses than we have suspected.

We know very little about how contagious diseases are carried from fowl to fowl. It may be that the lice do more of this work than any other medium. It may be that a louse draws infected blood from one fowl and from it infects the next fowl on which he happens to be.

There is an impression abroad that there is little poultry disease where there are no lice and no dirt. It is a good thing to assume this at any rate. It may be an error, but if it is the error is on the part of virtue.

Prof. Charles Wood, in charge of the Maine station, was asked by the writer how he could keep his fowls free from lice. He replied that it was an easy thing to do. He started with perfectly clean pens and yards. He used incubators that had never been used before, and he put into those incubators eggs that had no lice on them. The chicks hatched had no lice, and no fowls are purchased and brought onto the farm. There has to be a beginning for the lice infestation, and the problem is to prevent the beginning. This is not a difficult thing to do.

If it can be done at an experiment station where there are 600 laying hens and thousands of chicks, it certainly can be done on any farm.

Dark Poultry Houses.

There are still many dark poultry houses to be met with in the country. Some of them are so dark that it is a wonder that the hens can get along without becoming diseased. It is also a wonder how the floor of such a house can dry out at all. It is not a difficult matter to knock a hole in the side of a poultry house and put in a window. This should be done now while the weather is good, says the Farmer's Review. The additional light will prove a great boon to the fowls which will thrive better because of the light in their dwelling house. In the summer time this matter of light is not of so much importance as it is in the winter. In the summer the fowls have the run of the farm and spend but little time in the poultry house, but in the winter they have to spend a very large amount of time there, especially if the location is in states where snow remains on the ground during a considerable part of the winter.

THEY CURE RHEUMATISM

A Particularly Painful Form of This Disease Yields to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Of the many forms which rheumatism takes, that which is popularly known as sciatic rheumatism probably tortures its victim more than any other. That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured this stubborn as well as painful trouble is a fact proven by the following statement, and no sufferer who reads this can afford to let prejudice stand in the way of trying these blood-making pills.

Rheumatism is now generally recognized as a disease of the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make—actually make—pure blood. When the blood is pure there can be no rheumatism. Mrs. Thomas Bresnehan, of 54 Mill street, Watertown, N. Y., says:

"My trouble began with a severe cold which I took about a week before Christmas in 1904. I began to have rheumatic pains in my back and limbs and after a time I couldn't straighten up. I suffered the most awful pain for months and much of the time was unable to leave the house and I had to take hold of a chair in order to walk and sometimes I could not stand up at all.

"The disease was pronounced sciatic rheumatism and, although I had a good physician and took his medicine faithfully, I did not get any better. After some six weeks of this terrible pain and suffering I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and that is the medicine that cured me. After a few boxes the pain was less intense and I could see decided improvement. I continued to take the pills until I was entirely cured and I have never had any return of the trouble."

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or the remedy will be mailed postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

THE CANADIAN WEST IS THE BEST WEST

160 ACRES FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

The testimony of thousands during the past year is that the Canadian West is the best West. Year by year the agricultural returns have increased in volume and in value, and still the Canadian Government offers 160 acres FREE to every bona fide settler.

Some of the Advantages

The phenomenal increase in railway mileage—main lines and branches—has put almost every portion of the country within easy reach of churches, schools, markets, cheap fuel and every modern convenience.

The NINETY MILLION BUSHEL WHEAT CROP of this year means $60,000,000 to the farmers of Western Canada, apart from the results of other grains and cattle.

Success in the Gulf Coast Country

Here is an example of what YOU could do.

Sugar Cane from One Acre Brings $240.

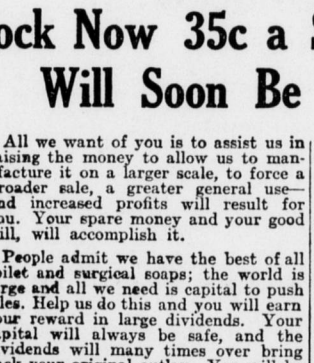
Mr. P. B. Blalack, of Brownsville, Texas, raised sixty tons of sugar-cane on one acre last year. He sold his crop for $240. He raises more cane to the acre than is produced elsewhere—also raises better cane. And there are many other cases of remarkable success in the Gulf Coast Country. We have compiled a booklet setting them forth—it is yours for the asking.

One reason for success there is the richness of the soil. With this soil, the mild weather all the year round, and the plentiful supply of water for irrigation, the farmer raises immense crops. Garden truck of all varieties is raised in the winter and marketed in the early Spring when it brings the highest price. Any truck farmer can easily make more than $100 an acre.

Wouldn't you like to have a small farm in the Gulf Coast Country where success does not depend on uncertain weather with irregular rainfall?

Now the land is cheap and you can get it on easy terms. Twenty acres will cost you about $500. The cost of clearing it is about $5 an acre. The cost of water for irrigation varies. You may want an artesian well of your own; you may get water from some river; or you may get it from your neighbor. But the cost is not great, and those who have tried it have netted from the first crop a sum which has paid all expenses and left a good surplus.

The Winter Vegetable Garden of America



Take a trip down there and see for yourself—that's the best way. Every first and third Tuesday of each month, we will sell round-trip tickets to any point in the Gulf Coast Country and return, at the following rates:

From Chicago,	$25.00
From St. Louis,	20.00
From Kansas City,	20.00
From Peoria,	23.00
From St. Paul,	27.50
From Minneapolis,	27.50

These tickets will be good 30 days and they will permit you to stop over at any point. Low rates for one way tickets on some days, also.

Let me send you our books describing the wonderful crops produced in this marvelous country. Don't delay, write me to-day.

MAKE YOUR FORTUNE IN SOAP

Others Have Done It—We Are Doing It—You Can Do It.

WE OWN A SOAP MINE IN NEBRASKA.

The men in control are reputable men who will treat all stockholders honorably. A money-making proposition for you. Factory, building, ground, patents, soap mine, etc., all owned outright by the company.

Dollar Stock Now 35c a Share; Was 25c; Will Soon Be 50c!

Look Us Up

We realize that many concerns are offering their stock, and it is not always the most meritorious that meet with the greatest success. But we caution you as an intelligent investor to "look well before you leap."

Behind the Geyserite Mfg. Co. is one of Colorado's greatest merchants; its stockholders comprise some of the leading statesmen, men who have been or are now honored with foremost positions—a U. S. senator, a governor, a leading U. S. Government official, any number of professional and business men, publishers of daily newspapers, etc. Is a proposition that is good enough for these people good enough for you?

Prominent Directorate.

Among the prominent Coloradoans who interested themselves financially in this enterprise are Frank A. Joslin, a well-known Denver merchant; Hon. Harper M. Orahood, a leading member of the Colorado bar; Lieutenant-Governor Parks, President Daly, of the Capitol Life Insurance Company; F. G. Bonfils, publisher of the Denver Post; Crawford Hill, publisher of the Denver Republican; United States Marshal Bailey, and many others. It will thus be seen that the company has considerable standing, and that there must be a substantial basis of fact. These men could not afford to be involved in anything that was not genuine.

We are offering the stock to you at the same price that others are paying for it, no more, no less. It is treasury stock, non-assessable, only one man is drawing a salary (the foreman of the factory), and all the money secured is being used to increase the sale and the profits of Geyserite Soap.

A few weeks ago you could have bought this stock at 25 cents a share; to-day it is costing 35 cents; if you delay still longer it will cost you 50 cents. BUY IT NOW.

Not a Probability But a Reality.

Don't confuse this with a hole-in-the-ground that may not contain the metal you are looking for, nor with an oil well that may never spout oil beyond its surface. These are probabilities; Geyserite Soap is a reality. It exists. It is being manufactured, sold and used. It is no gamble or speculation. You can see it made, you can see it sold in the large stores of your city, you can see it used in households, offices, etc.

All we want of you is to assist us in raising the money to allow us to manufacture it on a larger scale, to force a broader sale, a greater general use—and increased profits will result for you. Your spare money and your good will, will accomplish it.

People admit we have the best of all toilet and surgical soaps; the world is large and all we need is capital to push sales. Help us do this and you will earn your reward in large dividends. Your capital will always be safe, and the dividends will many times over bring back your original outlay. You will be building up something for the future, something that you can point to as an asset all your life long.

Backed by 15 Years of Steady Operation.

Geyserite Soap has been sold for 15 years. It was exhibited at the World's Fair and received highest awards. We know of Americans now living in Europe who send for it in $2 and $3 quantities regularly—they would not be without it anywhere.

We want you to put your money into it, to use it, and in other ways to give it your help. We on our part will further its sale throughout the world and see that your investment makes money for you.

With our energy and knowledge of the business, with the capital we are getting, and with the good-will of many stockholders widely scattered, the financial success of this enterprise, on a scale equal to the greatest soap works, is assured.

Try One of Three Ways.

Presuming that you have read this announcement carefully through, we ask you to do one of three things:

1—Fill out the coupon and order as much of the stock for cash as your present savings will permit, or as much on the installment plan as your future earnings will permit; or

2—Send to the company for a copy of "Gold in Geyserite," the book that tells all about Geyserite Soap, with analysis, etc.; what the company owns; about the soap mine in Nebraska; the output; the profits; the officers; list of directors, stockholders, etc.; or

3—Write to any mercantile agency anywhere, or any public official, newspaper, friend or foe in Colorado asking about the Geyserite Mfg. Co., and from the answers you get decide whether you will buy this stock at 35 cents or not. When you learn who are behind this venture you will want to come in.
